FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kahr Firearms Group® to Attend Great American Outdoor Show

Pomona, NY – USA based, Kahr Firearms Group is proud to announce that they will be among the 1,000 exhibitors attending the Great American Outdoor Show in Harrisburg, PA February 7-15, 2015 at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex and Expo Center. This is the first time that Kahr Firearms Group has attended the event.

During the Show, there will be a Business Opportunity Luncheon at the Expo Center on February 10 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:15 PM in the second floor VIP room. The luncheon is sponsored by the Pike County Economic Development Authority, Wayne Economic Development Corporation and the Pocono Mountains Visitors Bureau. Justin Moon, CEO of Kahr Firearms Group will be the keynote speaker. The luncheon is by invitation only.

The Great American Outdoor Show is expected to attract approximately 500,000 visitors over the course of its 9-day run. The Show is a long-standing family tradition and celebrates the outdoor traditions of hunting, fishing, boating, camping and shooting sports.

Kahr Firearms Group will be exhibiting a vast array of their firearms from all three of their brands; Kahr, Magnum Research and Auto-Ordnance. Stop by booth #557 and get a sneak peak at the 2nd generation of Kahr pistols called the Gen2 Series. Also new for this year are the all stainless steel Desert Eagles.
